PRESS QUOTES

“Spectacular guitar playing and passionate, forceful vocals” -NPR

“With her sultry, heavy-lidded delivery and rich alto, Vazquez seems right out of a nightclub scene from a film noir.” -PopMatters

“She invited the audience in, embracing us all with her rich resonant voice, captivating us with both high energy and soft intimacy, and expressing the deep emotion of shared human experiences.”
-Oregon Arts Watch

“Edna Vazquez is a powerful singer, imaginative songwriter, dynamic guitarist, and kickass whistler whose universal message of love and healing transcends any language. A mind-blowing, heart-breaking vocal range injects passion and life into songs rooted in her Mexican heritage and fused with an almost indescribable blend of folk, jazz, and rock. Vazquez is the perfect antidote to toxic machismo...” -Portland Mercury

“There are only five songs on the record, but they are worth twice as much, thanks to the intensity of this exceptional musician. Edna Vazquez has the kind of voice that immobilizes you, that captures your attention, both in projection and in whisper.” -ICI Musique (Quebec)

“Just like Chavela [Vargas] used to do, Vazquez completely enters the song and takes you along with her. In our manufactured glossy pop world, she brings a breath of fresh air.”
